The Seat of Government.

The last issue of the Mainland Guardian contains a long and windy article on the subject of the removal of the Seat of Government from Victoria to some inland locality, Cache Creek apparently being the proper place in the estimation of our erudite contemporary. What influence has been brought to bear upon the mind of the writer of the article in question, to induce him to pen it at this particular juncture, is best known to himself. It may be that he has an ax of his own to grind; that being the possessor of a town lot in the neighborhood of the proposed capital, he is desirous that its value should be increased by the removal of the Seat of Government to that locality; or that, having a grudge against the good people of New Westminster because of their non-appreciation of his distinguished talents, he seeks to get square on them by subjecting them to the great inconvenience of a hazardous trip up the country over ice and snow in winter time to attend the sessions of the Legislature or transact business with the heads of public departments, instead of, as now, availing themselves of the luxurious accommodation of the steamer Enterprise and at the expense of a few hours' pleasant journey by water, at any season of the year, finding their way to Victoria; or it may be that he has drawn his inspiration from some Ministerial source with a view to holding the removal of the Seat of Government in terrorem over refractory island members should they refuse to support the present Ministry and to operate as a sop to up-country members to induce them to throw the weight of their influence into the Ministerial scales. In either case the dodge will prove a failure. Granted that hardships are to be met with in mid winter between New Westminster and Yale, by those whose business calls them down the country at that season of the year; but by removing the Seat of Government up to Cache Creek, while it would have the effect of changing the current of travel it would in no degree diminish the hardships the public would have to encounter in attempting to reach the capital, whether to attend the meetings of the Legislature, or to transact any other kind of business. If our contemporary can show that travelling would be less arduous and the frost less biting to persons going up the country, than it is to persons coming down, it would thereby make good an argument in favor of the change it proposes; if it cannot do so that part of its case falls to the ground. Among the "numerous reasons why it (the seat of Government) should be removed to a more central position," it is asserted that "if it were placed, say at Cache Creek, it would be easily accessible from all parts of the Province alike," and that "the cost of travel from all the extreme points would be equalized." Admitting, for the sake of argument, that Cache Creek is a more central location for the seat of Government than Victoria, that fact alone does not by any means constitute it the most suitable locality for that purpose, nor would its establishment there produce that equalizing effect in the cost of travel, considered in relation to the entire population of the country, that our contemporary claims for it. In legislating upon a matter of this kind, two objects should be kept in view—first, accessibility at all seasons of the year, and secondly, the convenience of the larger portion of the community. Now we contend that the seat of Government at Victoria serves both these objects in a much greater degree than would be possible were it transferred, as our contemporary contends it should be, to an inland locality, such as Cache Creek. Take Yale on the north, to Salt Spring island on the east, and Comox on the west, and we have embraced within those points not less than eight-tenths of the entire population of the Province, and whom, if the question were submitted to them, we venture to say, would unanimously prefer Victoria to Cache Creek as the seat of Government, as being in every respect the more convenient locality of the two for the purpose. It will therefore be seen that the removal of the capital would accomplish none of the objects for which the Guardian contends. As for the "general feeling of dissatisfaction" alluded to by our contemporary, and which it says the proposed change would "allay," we have yet to learn that the dissatisfaction spoken of has any other existence than in the cranium of our neighbor. It is purely a freak of the imagination on its part, the result probably of impaired digestion. There is one feature of this subject which seems to have been overlooked by our contemporary, viz, the cost which such a change would impose upon the Provincial exchequer. To provide elsewhere the necessary buildings for the various public departments, Legislative buildings, a residence for the Governor, etc., would necessitate an outlay of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to say nothing about the loss that would be sustained by the vacating of the buildings now in use, which would thereby be rendered comparatively valueless. If there were no other reason than that to which we have referred urged against the removal of the seat of Government, that alone would be sufficient to defeat so wild a proposition. When the railroad shall have been completed and the waste places of the interior are filled with a large and thrifty population, as we entertain no doubt they will be in time to come, the question of a change in the location of the capital to a more central position will most likely engage the attention of the Government and people, and possibly it may then be deemed advisable to make the change; but until that time comes, there is very little danger of the capital being removed from its present location.

Kootenay.

Mr. Charles Todd, M.P.P. for Kootenay, arrived here yesterday, via Portland and Puget Sound; left Wild Horse Creek on the 31st ult., six days later than the mail agent, whose news we published on Monday last. There is but little to add to Monday's budget. The weather in the Kootenay district was beautiful; at Walla Walla and the Upper Columbia the winter had set in; there were seven inches of snow, and the river, it was thought, would soon freeze. Mr. Vowell, the Gold Commissioner, and Mr. Cornelius Booth, who had been indisposed, were well; Mr. Seeley would be down here for the winter, provided leave would be granted him by the Collector of Customs, Mr Hamley. Mr. Haynes had held a County Court, but the cases had been disposed of by Gold Commissioner Vowell; Mr. Haynes, after remaining in the district a few days, left on the 28th or 29th for Usoyoos. Mr Lowe, of the latter post, intends visiting England during the winter. Mr. Booth, Clerk of the Records for Kootenay, was inviting tenders for two round trips of the mail via Fort Shepherd and Hope, between the middle of next month and the first of April. Mr. Todd informs us that communication is vastly improved between Portland and Olympia, since his journey to Kootenay in the summer; fare, including railway, $12 50.

SIR FRANCIS HAS NOT RESIGNED.—We gave the statement a few days ago of a Canadian journal of the 1st inst., to the effect that the member for Vancouver District had resigned. To-day we are enabled to contradict the statement. We quote from a Ministerial journal, the Toronto Mail, of Nov. 4th: The Grit papers have been making very free of late with the name of the Finance Minister—one asserting that he contemplated withdrawing from public life altogether, another that he had taken a house in Montreal, another still that he had accepted the Presidency of a Bank, and yet another that his successor in the Department of Finance had actually been selected. It may be as well to say that, perhaps no one is more surprised at some of these statements than the gentleman most particularly interested in them. It is none of our business to pry into Sir Francis Hincks' private affairs; but we believe we are justified in saying that there is no more reason for speculating about Sir Francis Hincks' future course now than at any time during the past twelve months. We need only to say here, by way of satisfying the gaudnunes, that Sir Francis Hincks has not resigned, and that, consequently, no arrangement of any kind has been made as to his successor.

FURTHER FROM OMINECA.—The Guardian supplies us with further from this mining section: The river called the Stranger river, at Omineca, is known as the Misilinca amongst the Indians; it heads, as also does the Osalinka, in the same range of mountains towards the head of the Findlay branch of the Peace river, and flows into the Omineca river. News has been received from Jim May's party, who are prospecting between the Misilinka and the Osalinka, that good diggings have been found, and further reports are looked for about the beginning of January.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night Mrs. Coriell's troupe continued their series of performances. The programme was the same as that of the previous evening, and the various performers well merited the applause which was elicited from all parts of the house. Mrs. Coriell in that beautiful song "Il Bacio" is especially charming. To-night this lady will take a benefit, and we sincerely trust one worthy of her merits will be accorded her, and if such be the case the Theatre will be crowded. Let the theatre-goers of our city come out en masse.

SIR GEORGE ACCEPTS.—A letter from Sir George E. Cartier is published, in which he accepts the representation of Provencher, and assures its people that he will ever use the power they have placed in his hands in such a way as to prove that they have chosen as their representative a friend of their district and of their Province. He also says: "I can assure you that the great Conservative party of Quebec which has so much contributed by its influence to confer on your Province free institutions, appreciates fully the honor done it by this election, so spontaneous on your part and so unsolicited."

HON. MR. HOWE.—We have tolerably reliable information to the effect that Mr Howe's withdrawal from the Government is only a question of a few weeks—probably of days. This is well understood in Hants county, where canvassing is already going on for Mr. E. W. Dimock, to take Mr. Howe's place as a member of the House of Commons.

FROM THE SOUND.—The North Pacific arrived yesterday noon, with an Eeastern mail and the following passengers: Capt. Blum and wife, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Eerry, Miss Pearson, Hoffercamp, wife and 2 children, Reckard, Sears, Cottidm, Sunth, Foster, Mack, Todd, McClay, Wm. Patterson, Butler, Evans, Davies, Murphy, and 20 others.

WE understand, says the Ottawa Times of the 4th, that Hon. Louis Betourney, the newly appointed Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench of Manitoba, and Mr. Cyrille Delagrave, the newly appointed Recorder of the City of Quebec, have been created Queen's Counsel by His Excellency the Governor General.

UP COUNTRY.—For the last four years they have not had such an abundent crop as they harvested this year, about Williams Lake, Chilcoaten, and Soda Creek. Perry Kent is going to winter his large train of mules on the Chilcoaten side of the Fraser. The root crops are all good and all well harvested.

JURORS.—We are informed that several colored men have been summoned to appear for jury duty in the Assizes to open next Tuesday. The desire of our colored citizens has at length been conceded them.

IN TOWN.—Mr. Todd, one of the Kootenay members arrived in town yesterday. Mr. C. Oppenheimer, of the same district, is also in town, having arrived by yesterday's North Pacific.

OUR SURVEYOR GENERAL.—Mr. Dewdney, M. P. for Yale, has been offered the appointment of Surveyor General—and has accepted the same.

THE steamer North Pacific left here at three o'clock this morning, for the Sound and way ports.

The Meadows.

The following letter, signed James Wickham, appeared in the Cariboo Sentinel of the 9th, and the editor of that journal states that the information contained therein is reliable and thoroughly authentic:

EDITOR SENTINEL:—In order that a false impression may not obtain, and to let every fact fall into its right place, you will permit me to correct a statement made in your issue of the 2nd inst., under the head of "Mining Intelligence." Referring to the Lane & Kurtz Co., you state that a prospect of $20 had been obtained. This would be understood amongst miners as having been obtained in one pan of gravel. Such is not the case. The prospect mentioned was taken from two buckets of new gravel found at the roof of the tunnel, and estimated to be about one-half ton in weight. This development sets at rest the question of the existence of gold in the Meadows, and gives assurance of the ultimate success of this enterprise. The most skeptical must admit that this Company now have all the essential elements of success. The Superintendent of the Company, Mr R. H. Brown, finding the steam and pumping capacity to a certain degree inadequate to the work to be accomplished, is bringing up his reserve of thirty thousand pounds of machinery, and has ten men employed in clearing the field for new action. Weather permitting, the winter campaign against water, that element which is both the friend and foe of the miner, will begin in about six weeks. Woe to the vanquished.

JAMES WICKHAM.

Washington Territory.

[From the Seattle Dispatch of Yesterday.]

We hear of some snug speculators who want to make a quick turn with large profits, going to Victoria and purchasing large quantities of brandies, opium, etc., and taking it to San Juan Island, a free port both to England and the United States, which will probably, within two months, come under the U. S. flag. The goods being then in the United States, will not be subject to custom duties, and will show a profit of one hundred per cent. It is looked on just now as a better speculation than terminus property, and a rush of our speculators may be expected for "it is a good thing."

A gentleman from Kalama, says the snow is from eight to ten inches deep in the valley of the Columbia, and the weather unusually cold for the season in that section. We had a small flurry of snow here a few days ago, but it melted nearly as fast as it fell, and the weather is now as mild, clear, and beautiful as could be wished.

MARRIED.—On the 14th inst., at to the residence of R. S. Booth, Esq., by Rev. Daniel Bagley, Jacob Wahl and Mary Havelock, all of Seattle.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—Yesterday, at Messrs. Davies's auction rooms, real estate fetched very good prices. The following is a list of the business transacted: Lot 4 of the Oakland estate, about one acre, was bought by Mr. Heisterman for $90. Town lot No. 1019, on Meares street, bought by Mr. R. H. Angerman for $400. House and town lot 814, Yates street, sold to Mr. Robert Newell for $790. Town lot 1143, on Franklin street, sold to Mr. Fawcett, jr., for $190. Subdivision 15 of Section 5 was bought by Mr. J. B. Sere for $80. Subdivisions 29, 30, 31 & 32, at Cadboro Bay, passed to Mr. Abel Beswick at the rate of $14 50 per acre. Part of Section 44, about 50 acres, at Cadboro Bay, was claimed by Mr. Arthur Bunster at $8 25 per acre.

A VACANCY.—Mr. Dewdney's seat in the Federal Parliament will become vacant by his acceptance of the Provincial Surveyor Generalship, and a new writ of election will have to issue. Messrs. Humphreys and Smith, who were candidates in the late contest, will no doubt be again brought forward. Mr. Dewdney will take his position in the Lands and Works on Monday next, closing with the railway survey in the meantime.

NEW EXCHANGE.—We have to welcome among our exchanges the Puget Sound Express, which is published at Steilacoom, W. T., and is issued every Thursday morning by Mr. Julius Dickens; subscription, $2 50 per annum. The proprietor has our best wishes for a long and useful career. We stated on a former occasion that the plant used is that of the Argus recently published at Port Townsend.

MR. HUNTER, C. E., who was offered the appointment of Surveyor General of the Province, has declined on the ground that his duties in connection with the railway survey will necessarily engage his attention for some further time, and therefore he would be unable to fill the position tendered him by the local Government.

TELEGRAPHIC.—The steamer Etta White left here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, with the cable for Hood's Canal, W. T. The cable is for the use of the Puget Sound Telegraph Co., and will render, when laid, the connection between Port Townsend and Seattle complete.

FROM BURRARD INLET.—The steamer Grappler arrived here at three o'clock, yesterday morning, from Burrard Inlet. She brought the following passengers: Mrs. Hughes, Capt. Raymur, Messrs. McEwen, Seaton, Deighton, Swett, and Robinson.

NAVAL.—H. M. S. Boxer, from Esquimalt harbor, arrived here at 9 o'clock a. m., yesterday. She is now alongside Messrs. Dickson, Campbell & Co.'s wharf, where she will remain for some five or six weeks for repairs to be executed on her boiler and furnaces.

THE Princess Royal will leave Esquimalt harbor early next week, for Utsalady, W. T., to take spars for Europe. Her naval stores would be landed yesterday evening, and the remainder of her general freight will be out probably to-day.

FOR BURRARD INLET.—The ship Seaforth from Yokohama, bound for Burrard Inlet, passed up the Straits yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock. She picked up Capt. McKinnon, pilot.

TRYING to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl through a pair of green goggles. You may know what you are doing, but nobody else does.

THE CONTRACT.—The Dominion Cabinet sat on the 4th from 11 till 4, and it is surmised the Pacific Railway matter engaged their attention.

ANOTHER NEW EXCHANGE.—We received yesterday No. 1, vol. 1, of the Ottawa Herald, a journal which will be independent in politics.

CORRECTION.—The value of the cargo ex Delaware amounts to $23,000, not $1,732 47, as in our yesterday's impression.

LIEUT. ROYER, lately of H. M. S. Sparrowhawk, left Ottawa on the 4th, en route for England.

ANYBODY'S ORGAN will still persist to hang on to our coat tails. Go it alone, boy.

COLUMBUS, S. C., Nov. 20—Grant's majority in this State is 493 565.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—Nelson, Minister to Mexico, had a long interview with the President this afternoon, in relation to affairs in that country. He spoke in praise of the new President of Mexico, particularly of his intelligence and desire to preserve and cement the friendship now existing between this country and Mexico. There seems no obstacle in the way of concluding a new convention, or extending the time for disposing of the remaining claims before the United States and Mexican mixed commission, the limitation of which will expire under the present convention in July next. It is stated that the President, Tigado, is anxious for such extension, and will appoint an agent in good faith to carry out the design of Gurman by whose exertions the proceedings for some weeks were interrupted, and preliminary steps are already taken for a new convention.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20—The Evening Post's Washington special says Secretary Fish authorizes the statement that he does not intend to accept the English mission, or any diplomatic appointment upon his resignation in the Cabinet on 4th March next.

Delano's friends are working hard to create a feeling favorable to his appointment as Secretary of the Treasury, in the event of Boutwell's election to the Senate. It is confidently asserted by Delano's friends that the position had been tendered him by the President.

General Butler writes to a friend that he is not a candidate for the Senate against Boutwell, and before he enters the Senatorial arena, he expects to be Governor of Massachusetts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—The Attorney General has decided against an application of Barney Woods, the murderer of Wm. Cheeseman, for commutation of sentence of death. He is to be hanged on the 26th inst.

Charles Johnson will be hanged on the 6th of December.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20—Stanley arrived by the Cuba, and was escorted up the bay by a delegation from the Geographical Society, and the Herald club. Stanley's first reception in America will take place at the Lotus club, on Friday evening.

A distinguished assemblage met at the St. James hotel to-night, to further the objects of the industrial exhibition. General Devine presided, and stated that the grounds have been purchased in the best locality in the city, at a cost of $170,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20—The ex-Mayor of Brooklyn has filed an answer to the complaint of Mrs. W. F. Ward, in which she seeks $100,000 damages, for breach of promise of marriage. His reply attacks her personal character, and promises proof.

BOSTON, Nov. 20—At seven, p. m., a fire broke out in Regaud & Avers' large printing house, at the foot of Washington street, and the establishment will probably be destroyed. The adjoining buildings on Cornhill were threatened. A general fire alarm sounded, and the Fire Departments of Charlestown and Chelsea were called upon.

Awakening to the Truth.

[From the Globe.]

The British Columbians are, we have never doubted, too shrewd by far to be for very long blinded by the dust thrown in the eyes of their representatives at Ottawa. Did they really suppose that all those votes of money, all those bland compliments really meant love for British Columbia? Have they never heard before that lavish promises and rows of figures do not necessarily mean the performance of one single obligation? If not, they are beginning to find it out now, and we are glad of it, not because we desire that they should be disappointed, or public faith with them broken, but because they will now, perhaps, find a good and lawful excuse, if ever they needed one, for expecting from their members a little more independent attitude than was displayed in their first session. Those gentlemen may depend upon this, that the worst possible way to extract the fulfilment of a pledge from John A. is to coady him, and that the best possible mode of weakening British Columbia influence in the House was to pick up castaway Privy Councillors and set them on their legs as trans-Rocky-Mountain representatives.

We need not recapitulate the terms on which British Columbia entered the union. And it has often of late been called to the recollection of the public that last session witnessed the appropriation by the House of Commons for various purposes connected with British Columbia, of no less a sum than $750,000, or about seventy-five dollars per head for every man, woman and child in the Province. Proud and happy men were the six M. P.s—not to mention the four Senators—as they carried back the list of votes to their delighted constituents. When, however, the elections came on, there were heard murmurings that these liberal promises to pay had not been followed by any signs of performance. In the nick of time, it seemed, Mr. Nathan, one of the members, got a telegram announcing that something should be done for British Columbia "POSITIVELY IN A FORTNIGHT." Discontent was appeased, the elections passed over, the "fortnight" too were away; but still British Columbia waited. Now let us see what she says by her leading newspaper, the property of Mr. Amor DeCosmos, M.P. for Victoria. That journal—the STANDARD—writes as follows:

"Harvesting is at an end, and our towns are filled with able-bodied labouring men, anxious for employment, but unable to get it. In anticipation of the public works which the Dominion Government had promised to perform, and for which Parliament voted the necessary supplys, numbers of those people have been induced to remain here on expense, until all their savings have been eaten up and now they know not what to do. * * *

Yet Mr. DeCosmos and his friends all last session were voting with the great party.—as it is called, or used to be called before the elections were over—of "Union and Progress" Fourteen months of unlimited promises, and not a stone or stick to show for it! Only a couple of revenue agents to take care that, however little money is sent to British Columbia, all that is to be got there shall come to Ottawa!

Nay, what dark inuendo lurks in the words "people are begining to enquire, what they have gained financially by the change they have undergone?" If Mr. DeCosmos was an Opposition editor instead of a Ministerial supporter, he would be told in language more forcible than polite what this hint savours of. Does he not know that we in Ontario have waited five years for our canals to be put in decent order, and that all we have got has been votes, a commission and——nothing? Does he not know that, although three years ago Canada acquired the right to the Northwest Territories, there is not to-day so much as a shed in all that region to shelter the emigrant, or the small est certainty of the tenure of the land he squats upon? And is there one British Columbian not yet convinced that the agreement to build the Pacific Railroad in ten years from end to end was the merest piece of fooling? If British Columbia had found the present Government in any one instance "on time" she would certainly have had an experience unique in the history of this Dominion.

British Columbia may rest assured that the Parliament of Canada will not turn a deaf ear to any just representation, made by her members. It is the interest of every part of the Dominion that she should be happy, contented, prosperous, and in every way encouraged to develop her resources and become to the fullest extent a valuable and powerful member of the Confederation. But she must depend for this on the sense of justice of the House of Commons, not on the mere favour of a Ministry that will bid for her support to-day, only to neglect and scoff at her to-morrow.

Greeley Returns to the New York "Tribune."

NEW YORK, November 6th.—The Tribune to-morrow publishes the following:

"A CARD.—The undersigned resumes the editorship of the Tribune, which he relinquished on embarking in another line of business six months ago. Henceforth it shall be the endeavor to make this a thoroughly independent journal—treating all parties and all political movements with judicial fairness and candor, but courting no favor nor deprecating the wrath of any one.

"If he can hereafter say anything which will tend to heart ly unite the whole American people on a broad platform of universal amnesty and impartial suffrage, he will gladly do so, for the present, however, he can best commend that consummation by silence and and forbearance. The victors in our late struggle, can hardly fail to take the whole subject of Southern rights and wrongs into an early and earnest consideration and to them, for the present, he remits the subject.

"Since he will never again be a candidate for any office, and is not in full accord with either of the great parties which have hitherto divided the country, he will be able and will endeavor to give a wider, steadier regard to the progress of science, industry and useful arts than a partisan journal can do. He will not be provoked into the indulgence of those bitter personalities which are the recognized of journalism, but sustained by a generous purpose, he will do his best to make the Tribune a power in the broader field it now contemplates, as when human freedom was in peril, it was in the arena of political partisanship." Signed, HORACE GREELEY.

Our Public Works.

Ottawa Spectator.

Our Victoria (B. C.) correspondence of August last, gave utterance to the anxiety felt in that Province for the speedy commencement of the public improvements to be made by the Dominion. We find now that although the season has partly passed away, in which works can be undertaken, nothing has been done. From whatever cause the delay arises assuredly it is a great mistake. From the Victoria Standard, the most popular journal of the Province, and owned by Amor De Cosmos, M. P., a supporter of the administration, we take the following:

"In giving expression to a feeling of dissatisfaction at the course pursued by the liberal Government towards this Province since it became a part of the Dominion, we have no wish to be understood as being in any way disirous to create a prejudice in the public mind against the Government. * * *

Upon such an earnest, unprejudiced and frank statement as this, there need be little comment. The necessity for action is evident, and trust that no delay will take place. In a new Province, situated British Columbia is, it is most desirable that good feeling should be maintained, and that the faith of the Dominion should be kept with them. The condition of the Province must be passive, so long as the necessary public works remain unconstructed. Their navigation requires to be improved, and roads and bridges to be built, before the finest and most important sections of the country can be utilized. The vast tracts of farming country, the rich mining districts, required to be opened up, in order that an accessible market may be furnished to the agricultural productions, stock, &c. Almost immediate returns would recompense the outlay required to be made, while the impetus given the trade of the Province would stimulate it into an activity which would redound to the profit of the Dominion. Now that the Government Engineer has reached the Pacific coast, we presume that no time will be lost in removing the causes of complaint set forth in the Standard, and restoring the confidence of the British Columbians in the integrity and advantage of the scheme whereby they were made part and parcel of the great Dominion. We are among those who look upon that far-off Province as one of the most important portions of the country, and we trust that every advantage will be afforded for its speedy development.

Further Inquiries.

SEPTEMBER 20th, 1872.

Mr. Watson, SIR,—Excuse me for the liberty I have taken in writing to you, but as there appeared in the papers lately a letter dated July 4th, in the name of Robt. Watson, recommending British Columbia as a good country for female servants, and you kindly offer to give any information that may be asked of you, I therefore take the liberty to ask if you directly wrote the letter, and if the place is what you represent it to be. I am a cook and according to your statement the wages are tempting; I think therefore I shall make up my mind to go and try what I can do, but not before the month of April. Will you kindly favor me with a reply which will oblige greatly,

Yours, respectfully,
ANN D., Aberdeen, Scotland.
